

JOIN ME FOR MY LAST GATHERING IN THE STATES

To Love Completely, Irrespective.

A Stephen Victor Workshop

December 7–8
Ashland, Oregon

"May you know joy irrespective of circumstance." — Bert Hellinger

Dear Friends,

My December Workshop is my last one in the States. I am leaving Southern Oregon. Life is Beckoning me to other seas and ports of call.

Among a myriad other things, we humans get to experience Life Beckoning--Life's continual invitation to change. To become. To be more than our upbringing and culture suggest. My work has always been in service to these ends...

Please join the intimate beauty of the long term circle I've been privileged to work with on December 7 & 8 in Ashland. It will be Life Changing and heartening. I promise.

"To Love Completely, Irrespective" is no a hollow abstraction nor the dribble of a hoped for new age pursuit. Rather it is an opening proffered by the Mystery that is utterly and irrepressibly relevant in its embodied and applied forms. In our daily actions.

- What does this mean?
- How might this look?
- Is it possible?
- If so, how can this be accomplished?
